Not only are we confident you'll thrive at Carolina, but we also believe you'll contribute to the education of your classmates and to the life of our community. You have an exciting and important future ahead of you, and we'd be honored for you to choose Carolina as the next step in your journey.

In the next few weeks, we'll be creating opportunities for you to connect with Carolina's community and get to know the students who will live and study alongside you and the professors who will challenge and encourage you. For details about enrolling and for making the most of your UNC experience, please see the resources on our website.

Because we want you to come to Carolina ready to thrive, your enrollment will depend upon your continuing to model good citizenship as outlined in the Honor Code and Community Standards of the application and your successful completion of the current academic year. We require that you graduate on time and continue to achieve at the level that enabled us to offer you admission.
